Food for the Flock

Mass w/Knights of St. John Tues evening at St. Mary. This is the patronal feast for the Order, and we’ll have extra solemnity. All welcome.

Help for addictions. We don’t like to talk about it, but many people struggle with addiction to alcohol, drugs, gambling, pornography, sex and other things. The pain and despair is great; there is hope! I prepared two handouts, which I’ve shared with Father Tom and Father Ang. We keep them in the confessionals. This can help you understand and start to change.

Many people give up hope for recovery. There is hope! Please ask for this info, for yourself or someone else, or simply step into the confessional at any time to pick one up. The one for chastity issues is on blue paper, the one for drugs, alcohol and gambling is on yellow.

St. Boniface Pastoral Council & School Board nominations due. I am late on this, sorry.

Nomination forms in pews this weekend and next. Please suggest someone, perhaps yourself, to serve our parish either on Pastoral Council or Piqua Catholic School Board. Those nominated must be confirmed and active Catholics. You may nominate more than one, but please use a separate form for each nomination.

Seminarians hard at work. Jim, Matt, and Deacon Barry have helped get the two school campuses in good order for the fall, trimmed bushes at Saint Mary, worked Saint Mary Festival, as well as helping at Mass. Jim and Matt were able to visit the schoolchildren the last week of school. Deacon Barry has preached at several Masses, and they’ve all helped at funerals.

Rebuild Saint Boniface Fund—here is what you’ve helped accomplish, thanks to your hard work and contributions:

- > Painting the Downing Street gym
- > New sound system in church
- > Purchased and cleared Wood St. property
- > Repaired extensive damage to front of church, in & out.
- > Repaired stained-glass window sills to deal with leaks.

Coming up:

- > Resurfacing school & church parking lots: this summer.
- > Repair plaster in breezeway and parish office. Soon.
- > Gradual refurbishing of stained-glass windows. Soon.

-Fr. Martin
